

IAC Partners is now a member of the United Nations Global Compact initiative

- Our commitment

As part of its CSR policy, IAC Partners is now a member of the United Nations Global Compact, an initiative to promote human rights, fight corruption and encourage environmentally friendly practices.

More than 9500 companies from 160 countries have joined this initiative launched in 2000, making it the most widely followed global movement worldwide.

Loris Mazza, Partner in charge of CSR topics, underlines the importance of this commitment: "We wanted to give a more concrete impact to the commitments we make on a daily basis as part of our CSR policy. By joining the UN Global Compact, we benefit from practical guides to help us improve on a daily basis".

Our full CSR report will soon be available for download.
